342 RANCH

CR 2234 Ranch | 342± Acres |Lampasas County, Texas | Lometa ISD |UNRESTRICTED LAND

Discover 342± unrestricted acres of classic Central Texas ranch country, conveniently located on CR 2234 approximately 15 minutes from Lampasas and just over an hour from Austin.

The ranch offers an attractive combination of open pasture and wooded cover, with a strong stand of native grasses providing excellent habitat for wildlife and grazing opportunities for livestock. Water features include two stock tanks and a wet-weather creek, adding both beauty and functionality to the property.

One of the ranch's standout features is its magnificent views and exceptional homesite potential. A prominent homesite location offers nearly 360-degree panoramic views across the surrounding countryside, creating an ideal setting for a custom home, weekend retreat, or ranch headquarters. The combination of privacy, expansive views, and the natural beauty of the property makes this an especially attractive place to build.

The owner has placed a special emphasis on wildlife and game bird management, particularly Bobwhite quail. The diverse habitat also supports an abundance of whitetail deer, turkey, dove, ducks, hogs, and other native wildlife, making this an outstanding hunting and recreational property.

With no restrictions, partially fenced acreage, native pasture, good cover, scenic views, and plenty of room to roam, this ranch offers tremendous versatility. Whether you're looking for a private homestead, working cattle ranch, hunting and recreational retreat, or long-term land investment, this Lampasas County property provides an opportunity to create your own piece of Texas.

WRITTEN AGREEMENTS ARE REQUIRED IN CERTAIN SITUATIONS: A license holder who performs brokerage activity for a prospective buyer of residential property must enter into a written agreement with the buyer before showing any residential property to the buyer or if no residential property will be shown, before presenting an offer on behalf of the buyer. This written agreement must contain specific information required by Texas law. For more information on these requirements, see section 1101.563 of the Texas Occupations Code.

Even if a written agreement is not required, to avoid disputes, all agreements between you and a broker should be in writing and clearly establish: (i) the broker's duties and responsibilities to you and your obligations under the agreement; and (ii) the amount or rate of compensation the broker will receive and how this amount is determined.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including informationdisclosedtotheagentbythebuyerorbuyer'sagent.Anowner'sagentfeesarenotsetbylawandarefullynegotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent. A buyer/tenant's agent fees are not set by law and are fully negotiable.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlinedprint,setforththebroker'sobligationsasanintermediary.Abrokerwhoactsasanintermediary:
